

Power BI Insight Report – Sample Superstore

Insight 1: The card visual displays a total of 2323 records, showing the overall number of orders in the dataset. This indicates a sufficient volume of data for meaningful business analysis and reporting.

Insight 2: The column chart shows that the Technology category has the highest total sales compared to Furniture and Office Supplies. This suggests that Technology products are the main revenue drivers and should be prioritized by the business.